

Sarah A. Todd Memorial Home continues to work on the development of our reopening plan. We continue to test residents and employees weekly for COVID-19. We look forward to allowing visitors back into our building but we need to make sure all proper protocols are followed before we can get to this step. Thank you for your understanding and patience as we take care of your loved ones.